

The Arvanitia Promenade

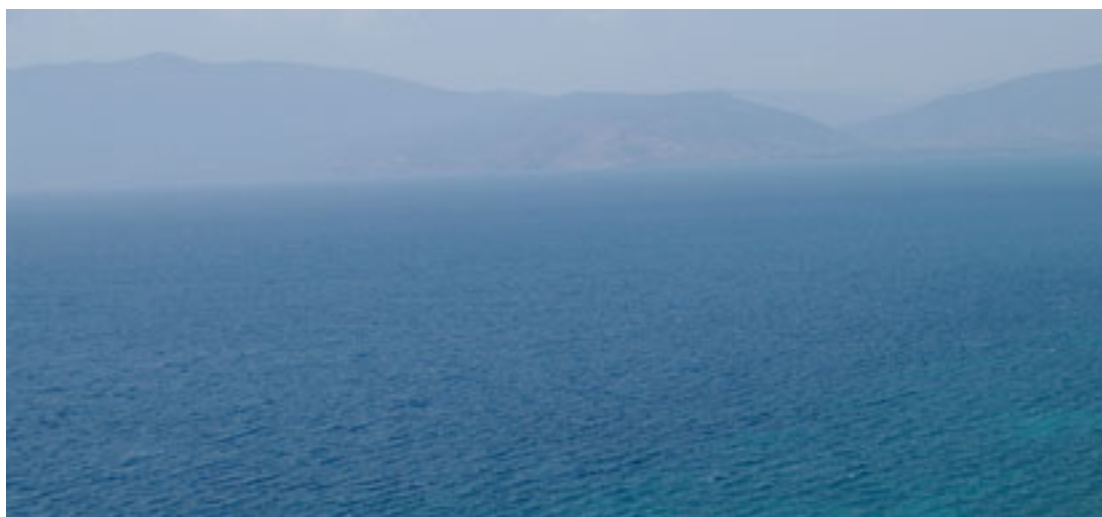

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 11:25

The Arvanitia Promenade is one of the most popular walks in Nafplio. The shore

The whole of the route is about half way through the old town of Nafplio with its small street and shops. It is known locally as Paraghi tis Spilias, or Santa Maria della Croce to the Venetians. It is unique.

The walk comes to an end in Arvanitia Square, which is from off the street that leads to the Arvanitia Beach.

The Arvanitia Promenade

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 11:25

In reality, the name is ~~due to the fact~~ due to the fact ~~Albanians~~ Albanians had inhabited the area ~~before~~ before

Further down from the square ~~is an organised beach area~~ is an organised beach area, where one can go to relax, sunbathe and swim.

Moving on from the square, ~~one can continue walking to the east, along the foot of the Palace~~ one can continue walking to the east, along the foot of the Palace in the direction of a

The Arvanitia Promenade

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 11:25

If one wants to return to the old town from the square Staikopoulos Park and the Land Gate.

The exact location of the Arvanitia Promenade can be found in Section

