

The Church of Panaghia

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:49

The Church of Panaghia, consecrated to the Presentation of the Virgin Mary, is one of the oldest and

The original church, which 15th century the , to the time of the first Venetian period, was smaller and belonged to

In around 1700 , during the time of the second Venetian rule, the church took its current form as a single-aisled basilica.

The interior has a beautiful wooden chancel in the eptanisian style 18th century.

The pulpit and bishop's throne are also in the same style. the bell tower dates from 1907.

The Church of Panaghia also celebrates the memory of Aghios Anastasios, the Patron Saint of the City.

Every year, on 1st February, the saint's feast day, there is a great procession of the icon of the p

The Church of Panaghia

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:49

The Church of Panaghia

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:49

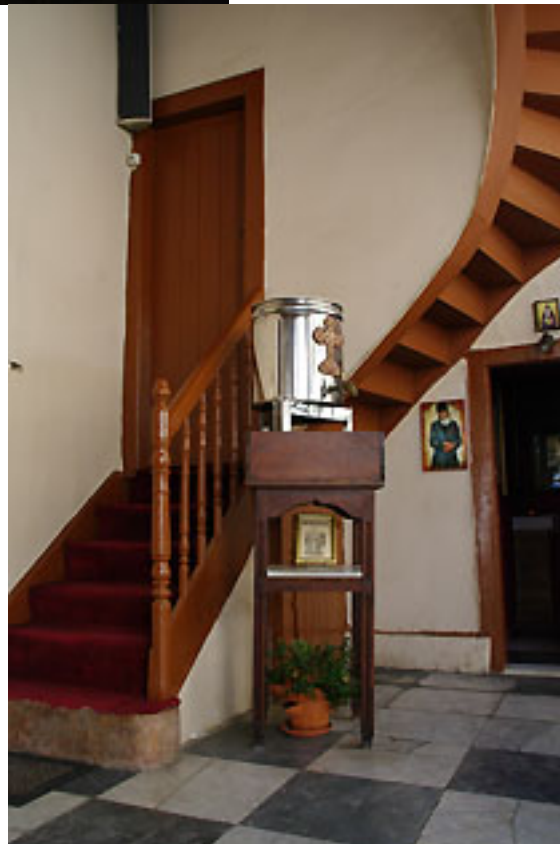

Today, the Church of Panaghia is a favourite pilgrimage site for visitors to the city.

The Church of Panaghia

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:49

The Church of Panaghia

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:49

The exact location of the Church of Panaghia can be found in Section Map