

The Monastery of Aghia Moni (Aria)

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 11:53

---

The Monastery of Aghia ~~The Katochikon of the Monastery~~ is about 12 kilometers from Nauplion, and since the 19th century it has been a Catholic monastery.

It is one the most important churches of the middle Byzantine period and is in excellent condition.

According to its foundation ~~the church was built with donations from the Bishop of Argos and Nauplion~~ the church was built with donations from the Bishop of Argos and Nauplion.

The Monastery of Aghia Moni (Aria)

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 11:53

---

The church is mainly of architectural interest and decorations have not survived.

The architectural type of is a cross-in-square of the four-columned type with stone of Architecture

The Monastery of Aghia Moni (Aria)

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 11:53

---

The other churches, which are mentioned in the text, are the Argolika, the Sotira in Plataniti and

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 11:53

---

4 / 6

The Monastery of Aghia Moni (Aria)

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 11:53

---

Today, outside the ground, Map The monastery is a small building with a gabled roof and a cross on top. The entrance is a dark doorway with a red frame. The building is surrounded by a stone wall and greenery.

The Monastery of Aghia Moni (Aria)

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 11:53

---

