

The Parliament Building

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:06

The Parliament building, holds a special place in Greek history, as the parliament of the rebellious island of Syros.

It dates from 1730, the time of the second Turkish occupation of the island. It is a characteristic of the style of the period.

According to local tradition, this mosque was built by a high Turkish Aga (governor) who found the building in ruins and decided to rebuild it as a mosque.

The Parliament Building

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:06

As with the liberal movement in Greece, the Parliament building was built in 1835, the same year that the first constitution was adopted.

The Parliament Building

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:06

In 1831 it housed

the Greek School for a,short t

The Marinos P. Mavroudis Hall with its entrance to the ground floor, Greek plays, The view as

The exact location of the Map Parliament Building can be found in Section

The Parliament Building

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:06

The Parliament Building

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 10:06

