

The Sagredo Gate

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 09:46

This gate takes its name from the general superintendent, Agostino Sagredo, and dates from the 18th, and Venetian

According to the inscription, the gate was designed by the architect of the castle on the Acropolis, have easier access to the town, the gate was designed by the architect of the castle on the Acropolis, the gate was designed by the architect of the castle on the Acropolis

It should be remembered that civilian habitation had been prohibited in the castle, as a fort, and only

The Sagredo Gate

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 09:46

The exact location of the Map Church Sagredo Gate can be found in Section

The Sagredo Gate

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 09:46

