

The Church of Aghia Sophia

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 09:38

---

Climbing the steps from Psaromichaliss street in the neighbourhood, one comes to the smallest of the nine domed

It is not beyond the realms of possibility that its construction dates back to Byzantine times, if we judge by the fact that in 715, Christian churches were forbidden to operate within the walls of the city.

Somewhere between 1772 and 1780, the Sultan granted Aghia Sophia the right to hold Christian services.

From then on, it was the only Christian church inside the walls that was allowed to hold services.

After the liberation of Nauplion, Aghia Sophia was renovated in 1825, as stated by the Provost Marshal of Nauplion.

The Church of Aghia Sophia

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 09:38

---

The exact location of the Church of Aghia Sophia can be found in Section

The Church of Aghia Sophia

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012 09:38

---

